A will may leave to the University a specific cash amount or property, or it may reserve for the University all or a certain percentage of the property remaining after provisions for family members and other beneficiaries. The donor may stipulate whether the bequest is for the general support of the University or for a specific purpose. A bequest may also be made in honor or memory of another individual.

In addition to cash and securities, bequests to Fu Jen University may include real estate, works of art, books, patent rights, or virtually anything of value. All outright bequests to the University are exempt from federal estate taxation.
